Competitor Code of Conduct

As a member of the United States of America Snowboard and Freeski Association (USASA), you represent the heart of our community.

This Code of Conduct is designed to ensure a safe, fair, and positive environment for every athlete, official, and spectator.

Agreement & Compliance

All USASA competitors must abide by the following USASA Competitor Code of Conduct. We hold our athletes to the highest standards of integrity.

Please be advised that:

Failure to obey the guidelines below will result in being asked to leave the event, disqualification, or formal sanction.

The Competitor's Pledge

As a USASA Competitor, I commit to the following:

- Sportsmanship
  - I will show good sportsmanship to other competitors, coaches, judges, officials, and parents at every competition.
- Encouragement
  - I will encourage my peers and praise good efforts, regardless of the outcome of the heat or run.
- Integrity
  - I will be honest, fair, and respectful to all others at all times.
- Respect for Authority
  - I will respect the decisions of USASA officials and judges, understanding that they are there to ensure a fair and safe event.
- Safe Environment
  - I will not engage in any violence, verbal threats, or use any profanity.
- Dignity for All
  - I will not belittle or ridicule anyone involved in a USASA event—whether in public, in private, in-person, or via online/social media platforms.

"USASA reserves the right to restrict anyones access to the "field of play" at a competition that violates this code of conduct during any competition or activity."
